

030818 MHB Club Meeting

McDowell Honeybees Monthly Meeting
March 8, 2018

Called to order by Ed Speer at 6:30 pm

Lady Spirit Moon Cirelli spoke about Bee venom therapy

Treasurer report

Balance %5583.43 including petty cash
Currently collecting membership dues for 2018
$7 individual/ $10 for Household
$15 for state membership online

Bee School

- 92 registered, 69 attended, 38 passed exam

Committees

Executive Committee -

Programs -

GAP - Jill - please fill out GAP forms either online or see Jill and she assist you with filling it out

MTCC Apiary -

Carson House has asked for an apiary to be managed by the club
Bill Hendley has volunteered

Honey House - Adam Wright

Currently closed for the season.

Hospitality - Lynn Bradley

Please see Lynn if you are interested in helping out with the hospitality committee and if you are willing to bring refreshments.

4 new attendees

Mentoring Program

Mentoring Committee - Stephanie Wilds

Match new club members with mentors

Signup sheet circulated, Karen to add form to website

Beekeeper Education - Karen Speer

Journeyman Study Group 7-9 pm Thursday May 3, 18, 25, June 7th and 21st

This will be a study group format and all participants will need to choose an area of expertise to teach their peers.

Signup sheet circulated

Website - Karen Speer

Honeybee Wellness

- Any club member can apply for up to $20 reimbursement for queens, nucs or packages as long as they come from an approved supplier. If you have a question as to whether your purchase is reimbursable, contact a board member.

New Business:

○ Community Outreach

- Eastfield Magnet School - March 16 - 10am-12pm - 1-2 volunteers needed

- Donut Festival April 21 - Honey Trail will be doing a tasting at the McDowell Master Gardeners

Business portion of the meeting closed at 8:05 PM

Lynn makes motion we adjourn, Jim seconds, all in favor

Minutes submitted by Karen Speer, Secretary